

NR509 Week 3 Quiz

Question 1

Prompt consultation is warranted to rule out retinal tears or detachments with which of the following key findings upon assessment?

Currently Selected: D

- A Painful eye with purulent drainage.
- B Hyphema with eyelid edema.
- C Subconjunctival hemorrhage and tearing.
- D Flashing lights with vitreous floaters.

Question 2

Which of the following findings are indicative of respiratory distress?

Currently Selected: B

- A patient torso leans posteriorly
- B skin between the ribs moves inward with inspiration
- C neck muscles are relaxed
- D speaking in sentences of 10-20 words

Question 3

As a nurse practitioner student, you are spending the clinical day seeing patients with your assigned preceptor. The following information is noted during the patient encounter: "The patient denies signs and symptoms of cough and nasal congestion." Where does this belong on the medical record? Select all that apply.

Currently Selected: A, C, D

- A past medical history
- B review of systems: cardiovascular
- C review of systems: respiratory
- D review of systems: HEENT

Question 4

Glaucoma is the leading cause of blindness in African Americans and the second leading cause of blindness overall. What features would be noted on funduscopic examination?

Currently Selected: D

- A microaneurysms
- B AV nicking
- C cotton wool spots
- D increased cup-to-disc ratio

Question 5

A patient is assigned a visual acuity of 20/100 in her left eye. Which of the following is true? HEENT physical assessment and documentation

Currently Selected: C

- A She can see at 100 feet what a normal person could see at 20 feet
- B She can accurately name 20% of the letters at 20 feet.
- C She can see at 20 feet what a normal person could see at 100 feet.
- D She obtains a 20% correct score at 100 feet.