

NR511 - Differential Diagnosis and Primary Care Practicum

Exam Study Guide - Final Exam Study Guide

Exam Format: Noncumulative

Question Type: Multiple Choice

Number of Questions: 100

Time Allotted: 120 minutes

Testing Timeframe: The final exam will only be available starting on Wednesday Week 8 at 12:01 am MT until Saturday Week 8 at 11:59 pm MT.

1. Exam Coverage

Content Areas:

- Week 5: Diagnosis and Management of Common Gastrointestinal Disorders
 - Week 6: Diagnosis and Management of Common Genitourinary and Male Reproductive Disorders
 - Week 7: Diagnosis and Management of Upper and Lower Extremity Disorders
 - Week 8: Diagnosis and Management of Neck and Back Disorders, Bites and Lacerations
-

2. Key Concepts to Study

Diagnosis and Management of Common Gastrointestinal Disorders:

- Differential diagnoses for irritable bowel syndrome (IBS)
- GERD assessment and management
- Diagnosing esophageal stricture
- Crohn's disease management and referral
- Diagnosing acute cholecystitis
- Diagnosing appendicitis
- Diagnostic testing for peptic ulcer disease
- Managing chronic constipation
- Principles of iron supplementation
- Evaluating the body's iron stores