

CEA Physical Assessment Remediation

1. When auscultating the patient, which of the following most likely represents the point of nominal impulse (PMI)?
  - a. 5th intercostal space midclavicular line
2. When using a CXR for evaluation of PNA, the ambulatory patient should be prepared for which of the following images as the standard view?
  - a. PA and lateral views
3. Which of the following are falsely enlarged during AP chest radiographs?
  - a. Cardiac silhouette
4. For a patient complaining of SOB suspected of a pulmonary embolism, which of the following must be ordered to accurately guarantee the presence or absence of pulmonary embolism?
  - a. CT with pulmonary arterial angiography
5. Which of the following do NOT increase risk of small bowel obstruction?
  - a. Recent strenuous exercise
6. Which views of the 12 lead EKG is most likely to coincide with the anterior wall of the left ventricle?
  - a. Lead V3 and V4
7. Which views of the 12 lead EKG is most likely to coincide with the lateral wall of the left ventricle?
  - a. Lead V5 and V6
8. Which views of the 12 lead EKG is most likely to coincide with the inferior wall of the heart?