

NR 565 Week 7 Quiz

Score of 10/10

Question 1

1 / 1 pts

Which non-pharmacological intervention is an appropriate lifestyle modification for infants and children?

Supine position postprandially when infant is awake.

Do not eat within 4-6 hours of going to bed.

Keep infant in upright position for 45 minutes after feeding.

Correct!

Anti-reflux maneuvers (elevate head of bed).

Table 34-3

Question 2

1 / 1 pts

An elderly person has been prescribed lactulose for treatment of chronic constipation. Monitoring with long-term treatment would include which of the following?

Magnesium level.

Bone mineral density for osteoporosis.

Correct!

Electrolytes, including potassium and chloride.

Liver function.

Question 3

1 / 1 pts

Metoclopramide improves gastroesophageal reflux disease symptoms by doing which of the following?

Reduces acid secretion.

Increases gastric pH.

Correct!

Increases lower esophageal tone.