

1. A red reflex asymmetry requires referral to evaluate for:
  - A) Astigmatism
  - B) Retinoblastoma
  - C) Allergies
  - D) Viral conjunctivitis

2. A child with recurrent nosebleeds and pale mucosa likely has:
  - A) Allergies
  - B) Anemia
  - C) Asthma
  - D) Flu

3. A child with seasonal cough and nighttime symptoms needs:
  - A) Antibiotics
  - B) Spirometry
  - C) ENT referral
  - D) Allergy testing only

4. RSV typically presents with:
  - A) Wheezing and respiratory distress in young infants
  - B) Barky cough
  - C) Drooling
  - D) Stridor on inspiration

5. A teen with exercise-induced asthma needs:
  - A) SABA prior to exercise
  - B) Daily oral steroids
  - C) No exercise
  - D) Antibiotics

6. A 2-year-old with CF often presents with:
  - A) Constipation
  - B) Recurrent lung infections
  - C) Weight gain
  - D) Normal stools

7. A child with throat infection, uvular deviation, and muffled “hot potato” voice likely has:
  - A) Viral pharyngitis
  - B) Peritonsillar abscess
  - C) Mono
  - D) Croup

8. A painless port wine stain on the face may indicate risk for:

- A) Sturge-Weber
- B) Kawasaki
- C) CF
- D) JIA

9. First-line for periorbital cellulitis is:

- A) Oral antibiotics
- B) Observation
- C) IV antibiotics only
- D) Surgery

10. A child with unilateral foul-smelling nasal discharge likely has:

- A) Viral rhinitis
- B) Allergies
- C) A foreign body
- D) Sinusitis

11. A child with conjunctivitis and ear infection likely has:

- A) Viral cause
- B) H. influenzae infection
- C) Allergies
- D) Trauma

12. A school-age child with diffuse maculopapular rash after penicillin likely has:

- A) Drug reaction
- B) Kawasaki
- C) SJS
- D) Eczema

13. A child with wheezing, fever, and focal crackles most likely has:

- A) Pneumonia
- B) Asthma
- C) RSV
- D) Allergies

14. A painless white patch on the retina in an infant is:

- A) Normal variant
- B) Retinoblastoma until proven otherwise
- C) Cataract only
- D) Myopia

15. A 4-year-old with suspected retinoblastoma should be screened per guidelines of:

- A) AAP
- B) AAOOP