

Culturagram for Hopi Indians in Kykotsmovi Village, Arizona

- Education: Traditional, holistic
 - Work: Agricultural, ceremonial
 - Family structure: Extended, communal
 - Power: Spiritual, collective
- Homburg et al. (2023); Alonzo & Gearing (2021).

Language spoken at home/community: Hopi language

Time in the community: Is cyclical and interconnected with natural rhythms and ceremonial cycles.

Homburg et al. (2023); Alonzo & Gearing (2021).

Oppression, discrimination, bias, and racism: have been historical countered through resilience

Homburg et al. (2023)

Population: Is a tribal block for Indians

- Live in harmony with nature
- Median Household Income: $ 52,143
- Birth rate: 7.3
- Death rate: 6
- Unemployment rate: 43.5%
- Total Housing Units: Approximately 289
- High school: 15.6%

Effects of trauma and cultural disruption. They often handle crisis events by spiritual practices, communal support, and cultural resilience (Cheromiah, 2021).

- Cultural contact: Experiences modern influences.
- Spiritual practices: Observe religious holidays.
- Food: Embraces traditional diets, and incorporates modern options.
- Clothing: Honors traditional attire, and integrates contemporary styles.