

What is Social Technology?

- Social technology is any type of technology where human intellectual is used to influence how people communicate and interact using social processes. (Wikipedia)
- Ex: software, blogs, social networking sites, etc.

